Individual Notes:

The Miley litter overall is confident and self-assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They react appropriately to new sites and sounds. They are curious and investigative. These puppies have good motivation for food and excellent motivation for interaction and good interest in toys. These puppies have very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average to their age and stage of development. These puppies are rarely vocal. They do use their mouth a lot to initiate or engage and have excellent bite inhibition. Overall, these puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. White is very gentle and respectful, and can be a little timid to start with new interactions, but does adjust very well and on her own. These puppies are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They all have mid to moderate energy. Overall these puppies are well balanced with very subtle differences between individuals. Orange and Blue are more independent. These puppies, side-by-side, are all content to explore on their own while still being very personable and engaging. They are eager, playful, curious and happy. They are social and well balanced. These puppies should adapt well into any home.
