Ingrid Pink Dot came in with a nice confidence. She explored the new environment with curiosity and ranges away checking back frequently.

She interacted mixing appropriate & inappropriate behavior with her littermates in new situations. There was little to no stress shown when change was introduced and she also did well with stressors like bathing and extra handling.

Ingrid Pink Dot notices new sounds and new objects and quickly moves towards to investigate. Her focus is very good, she shows high interest in treats and interest in toys. These qualities could be good for training.

She does attempts to problem solve and does not give up with no signs of stress. She shows minimal improvement after first interaction.

While exploring, Ingrid Pink Dot does uses her mouth most of the time to figure it out. If she does use her teeth to explore, there is some marks to skin, and/or damage to toys.

She is vocal in stressful situations and socially appropriate ones.

Ingrid Pink Dot is comfortable and tolerant of handling.

Ingrid Pink Dot shows no aggression but shows some possessiveness with litter mates.

The Ingrid litter has a moderate energy level. Ingrid Pink Dot gets excited about most things and is just happy to be here. She enjoys interacting with the tester and works to engage, but may stop or get distracted.
