Eira Girls Litter Overview:

The Eira females are a delightful group, ranging from sweet and calm to playful and confident. They have moderate to mid-level energy, making them adaptable to various home environments. These girls are affectionate, gentle, and easy to be around. While some may bond more deeply with their person, they are all loving companions who enjoy both human interaction and independent play. No red flags were noted, and they should transition smoothly into their new homes.

Eira Red

- POTENTIAL THERAPY/EMOTIONAL SUPPORT CANDIDATE
- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Red started off a little reserved but warmed up quickly, showing her sweet and affectionate nature. She prefers to stay close to people, enjoying one-on-one attention, and will bond hard and fast with her person. Red may be possessive of attention in a multi-dog household, making her a perfect match for someone who needs a constant, loyal sidekick. Her loving and devoted nature makes her a strong candidate for therapy or emotional support work. No red flags were noted.

Eira White

- Energy Level: Mid-level
- Personality: White started off a bit unsure, but she was not fearful and quickly warmed up to both people and playtime. She's a calm and gentle puppy who is easy to be around and very tolerant of handling. White is respectful in her approach and not demanding of attention, making her a perfect fit for most home environments. Her adaptability and gentle demeanor will ensure a smooth transition into her new home. No red flags were noted.

Eira Pink Dot

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Pink Dot is a social and confident puppy who loves attention and affection. She's motivated by toys and play but is not pushy or demanding with her interactions. Pink Dot is self-assured and content to entertain herself but always enjoys engaging with people when given the chance. Her balanced temperament and ability to calm down easily make her a sweet and adaptable companion. No red flags were noted.
