Finley Boys Litter Overview:

The Finley boys are a wonderful group of puppies, each displaying unique and charming qualities. They range from confident and exuberant to gentle and observant, making them adaptable to a variety of home environments. With mid-moderate energy levels, they balance playfulness and calm nicely, ensuring they can settle well into both active and quieter homes. These boys show great focus, are respectful in their interactions with people, and are patient with handling. No red flags were noted, and they should transition smoothly into their new homes.

Finley Blue

-POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid-level
- Personality: Blue started off a little unsure but quickly adjusted, showing his sweet and gentle nature. He's respectful and loves being close to people, especially when it comes to affection and handling. Once he figured out how much he enjoys attention, he stayed nearby for snuggles. Blue's gentle demeanor and love for interaction make him a wonderful companion. No red flags were noted.

Finley Green

-POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Green is a confident and excitable puppy, especially when playing with his littermates. Despite his exuberance, he's calm and respectful when interacting with people. He's good with one-on-one attention and handling, and his moderate energy level makes him adaptable to both busy and quieter homes. Green is an easygoing puppy who should transition well into most environments. No red flags were noted.

Finley Orange

-POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Moderate to Mild-moderate
- Personality: Orange is social and engaging, often the first to respond to people for attention and affection. He has an exuberant play style but calms down nicely when interacting with people. Orange's good focus, love for bonding, and adaptable energy make him suitable for a busy home, though he would settle well into most environments. He's a people-loving puppy who will bond quickly. No red flags were noted.

Finley Blue Dot

-POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid-moderate
- Personality: Blue Dot is a great middle-of-the-road puppy who's happy to play independently or in a group. He has a good balance of play and calm, matching the energy level of the room, which makes him a versatile companion. Blue Dot enjoys being close to people, especially when tired, and his patience with handling ensures he will settle into most home environments with ease. No red flags were noted.

Finley Green Dot

-POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid-moderate
- Personality: Green Dot is a reserved and observant puppy who likes to assess situations before engaging. He's independent, preferring calmer play and one-on-one interactions at his own pace. Green Dot is gentle, sweet, and patient, and he thrives when given the time to initiate interactions on his terms. His mild-mannered nature makes him well-suited for a home that can provide him with the space to adjust comfortably. No red flags were noted

BLUE - A little unsure to start but adjusted quickly. Gentle when engaging with people. Very respectful. He figured out pretty quickly that he likes affection. It would stay close by to be held and interacted with. He's a sweet natured puppy. Good with handling and attention. Mid-level energy.

GREEN - confident and easily excited. He's exuberant with his interactions when playing with his litter mates, but calm and respectful when interacting with people. He's good with handling and one on one attention. Moderate energy level, but not obnoxious. He should transition easily to most home environments. Will do a busy home but doesn't have to be that. No red flags.

ORANGE - social and engaging. He's the first to respond to people. Likes getting that attention and affection. Exuberant in his play with a moderate energy level but calms nicely and is respectful when interacting with people. Good for a busy home, but will settle into most any home environment. He has good focus and will bond easily. Loves people. Moderate energy level at his peak mid moderate when he's an opportunity for an energy burn. No red flags

BLUE DOT - he's a great middle of the road puppy. He's happy to play independently or in a group. He has a mid moderate energy level. He has a good play activity level but calms nicely and is respectful when interacting with people. He likes to be close when he gets tired. He matches the energy level of the room, which is nice. He should settle in nicely to most home environments. He's good with handling. Patient. No red flags.

GREEN DOT - a little reserved to start. He liked to assess the situation before choosing to engage. He was very observant and has good focus. He would most likely enjoy one on one training. Not overly needy or pushy. He was content to be on his own.

He does not prefer rough play. He's a more mild mannered puppy and likes to engage on his own time and at his own speed. He is sweet and tolerant of handling.

He is a patient puppy and feels most comfortable when he can initiate the interactions.

Gentle and sweet. Could feel overwhelmed if not given appropriate amount of time to adjust. No red flags.
