Litter Overview:

The Hilary females are a lively and confident group with a range of personalities. They each have their unique strengths, and all of them are playful, sweet, and engaging. With varying energy levels from mid to moderate, they are well-suited for homes that can balance playtime and relaxation. All of the girls show great potential for smooth transitions into new environments, and none of them present any red flags in terms of behavior or temperament.

Hilary Pink Dot

- Breeder's Pick

Pink Dot started off timid in new environments, taking some time to warm up. She tends to be vocal when unsure or nervous, but as she gains confidence, her activity level increases. With patience, she blossoms into a playful and engaging puppy, showing steady improvement with time.

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Timid but gains confidence; patient and adaptable with the right support.

Hilary Pink

Pink is a silly, fun-loving puppy with a comedic personality. She's comfortable in new situations, showing no signs of nervousness or fear. Pink bounces around with joy wherever she goes and is always happy to interact with people and toys. However, she could become bored in a more laid-back home environment.

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Playful, happy, and confident; great for an active household.

Hilary Red

Red is a self-assured puppy who is happy to entertain herself and isn't overly needy for attention. She enjoys calm, one-on-one time and settles in nicely once she's done playing. Red is sweet, polite, and never pushy, making her a perfect fit for a home that appreciates balance and calmness.

- Energy Level: Mid-moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Independent, calm, and sweet; enjoys quiet time but loves to play.

Hilary White

White is a sweet, mannerly puppy who enjoys her independence. She's not very needy for attention but will seek it out when she's ready. While tolerant of handling, she can be a bit squirmy at times. White prefers a more peaceful environment, as she's not fond of loud or overly active situations.

- Energy Level: Mid-moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Independent, mannerly, and prefers quieter settings.

Health Notes:

None

Hilary Red Dot

Red Dot is a bubbly, interactive puppy who thrives in new situations. She's comfortable around new people and puppies, and she's always eager to engage. With strong focus and a self-assured nature, Red Dot has great potential for training and could excel with the right guidance.

- Energy Level: Mid Moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Confident, interactive, and focused; great potential for training.
