These four boys couldn't be any cuter and the more you are around them the more you love them! Because they all have such very similar temperaments, it would truly be hard to choose one.

They all have good confidence that allows them to comfortably navigate new situations.

Their bouncy playfulness is infectious to watch.

No red flags or concerns with any of them.

Great puppies to socialize and train with.

BLUE - confident and curious. Great with handling. Good play energy. Mid-moderate energy level. No red flags and should transition easily.

GREEN - confident and happy. Great with handling. Motivated by toys. Mid-moderate energy level. No red flags and should transition easily.

ORANGE - confident, happy and clumsy. Great with handling. Affectionate and enjoys attention. Mid-moderate energy level. No red flags and should transition easily.

BLUE DOT - confident and happy. He can entertain himself but is happy to engage. He loves toys. The most independent in the litter. Mid-moderate energy level. No red flags and should transition easily.

HEALTH NOTES:

BLUE DOT - underbite

GREEN - underbite
