Great litter with a range of temperaments to meet several needs. This is a happy and loving litter with proper training. I think they will exceed anyone's expectations for a dynamic companion.

BLUE - he started out a little unsure and only knew how to show his uncertainty through nervous barking. He wasn't sure what to do with his brothers, exuberant excitement, and activity. It made him a little nervous and wanted to be held. He was very motivated to play and interact and has a lot of want to, but would shy away again if it became too much. I can't say that I blame him because his brothers kept bowling him over.

Orange - he was immediately desperate for human interaction and attention and worked his little heart out to get it. He has no concept of personal space. He has such a tremendous drive for engaging with people would recommend watching for potential service candidate.

Happy and confident he has good focus and pays attention to what you're doing.

Good with handling. But would benefit from basic puppy manners training to better understand the appropriate way to give and get attention.

Moderate energy level.

Orange dot - (BP) he came in confident and ready to go. Self-assured and slightly independent. He is motivated by toys, noise, and movement.

Content to play on his own or with his siblings. He's not very demanding of your time or attention if he has other things to entertain him.

He is good with handling and is very patient. Pleasant to be around.

He's happy and excited to explore new things and has a curious mind.

He has a moderate energy level .

Green - Smallest of the boys and it's just as sweet as he can be. Not pushy or rude with his interactions. He's great with handling and likes getting special attention.

He's curious of new sites and sounds and will try to figure them out.

He enjoys engaging in play but isn't rambunctious.

He has a mid level energy.

Just a very kind puppy. No red flags.

Blue dot - happy and confident puppy. He's motivated by toys and play. he's a little more independent and doesn't require too much of your attention as long as he has other things to engage himself in.

Good for someone who doesn't want a very needy or demanding puppy.

Smart and self-assured. Doesn't get rattled easily.

He is patient with handling but if he was doing something fun, he would prefer you leave him to it.

Beautiful and entertaining pup. No red flags.

Green dot - very motivated by human interaction. He works hard to get and keep your attention. A little mouthy when he engages but redirects easily. Smart and focused on what's going on around him.

He is good with handling and the more attention he gets the more he wants.

Watch for potential service candidate.

Happy puppy who loves everything and wants to be a part of it.

A little rude with his interactions just because he doesn't know how else to tell you he loves you so much!

Training recommended to help him reach his fullest potential. Great loving companion!
