

Molly Litter Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 7/22/2024

Molly Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Molly Boys Litter Overview:

The Molly boys are an incredible group of well-rounded puppies, each with their own unique personality and charm. They adjust easily to new environments and display a great balance of confidence, gentleness, and playfulness. These puppies will make excellent companions, bringing a mix of affection, fun, and adaptability to their new homes. They are all very loving and sweet, with no major concerns, making them easy to transition into a variety of households.

Molly Orange

Breeder's Pick; Enrolled into 16 Week Prep School

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Orange is a perfect middle-of-the-road puppy who easily adapts to the energy of his environment. He's playful, gentle, and sweet, making him an all-around cool pup. Orange's balance of gentleness and playfulness ensures he'll fit well into any home, whether it's an active or a more relaxed environment. His adaptability and even temperament make him a great choice for a variety of families.

Molly Blue

- POTENTIAL EMOTIONAL SUPPORT CANDIDATE
- Energy Level: Mid-level
- Personality: Blue is naturally respectful and the gentlest of the group. He still has that sweet baby quality, and his love for people is evident in every interaction. Blue is an affectionate puppy who would make an excellent emotional support companion. His calm demeanor and deep affection for people make him a perfect fit for someone looking for a gentle, loving sidekick.

Molly Green

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Green is the confident and playful leader of the group! He's outgoing and full of energy, often using his mouth to initiate play with his littermates, though he's easily redirected. Green doesn't seem to know he's a small dog—his big personality shines through! His independence and bubbly nature make him a fun and entertaining companion. Green could benefit from a couple of weeks in prep school to help refine his manners and channel his energy effectively.

Molly boys overall are incredible! I love these puppies. Each one brings something different to the table as they are all not alike. They adjust easily to new environments. They are well rounded puppies.

Blue - mid energy - he is naturally respectful and the most gentle of the group. He is still very much a sweet baby. He loves loves loves people. He could easily be an emotional support pet.

Green - moderate - very confident and playful! Most outgoing of the group. He doesn't realize he is a small dog. He thinks he is big haha! He can use his mouth to initiate play but can be easily redirected. He is very fun and bubbly. He is the most independent of the group as well. Green could benefit from a couple of weeks of school to prioritize manners.

Orange - mid/moderate - BREEDERS PICK middle of the road kind of guy! He doesn't have many outliers. He is gentle and sweet but also very playful! He can easily adapt to the energy of the room. Just a very cool pup.