

Charity Boys Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 9/23/2024

Charity Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Charity Boys Litter Overview:

The Charity boys are naturally sweet, mild, and playful puppies. They started off a little apprehensive and shy but warmed up quickly, displaying a charming and gentle disposition. Both boys occasionally whine when unsure, which is expected to improve with confidence and maturity. They have mid-level energy and are incredibly easy to be around, bringing joy with their cute and fun play. These boys would do well in loving homes that provide affection and gentle guidance.

Health Notes:

- Both boys have a mild underbite. This is not expected to cause discomfort or affect their daily lives. It may improve as they mature, but even if it remains, it will be mild and unnoticeable.
-

Charity Blue

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Blue may be the smaller of the two, but he shines with confidence and charm. He warmed up very quickly, exploring the room with a bouncy, bubbly energy. Blue's silly play and interest in toys and human interaction make him a delight to watch and engage with. His great temperament and adaptable nature ensure he will transition smoothly into his new home. No red flags were noted.

Charity Green

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Green is a gentle, sweet puppy with a more timid start. He is deeply people-oriented and feels most secure when receiving affection and attention. Though slightly awkward with handling at times, this is expected to improve as his confidence grows. Once comfortable, Green's playful side emerges, and he eagerly joins in the fun. His calm, respectful nature makes him a wonderful companion, and some training to build his confidence would help him thrive. No red flags were noted.

