Lillian Litter Overview

The Lillian litter is absolutely precious! These puppies are all confident, fun, and full of bubbly energy. 🥰 They have a love for toys and truly enjoy playing together, bringing so much joy with their silly antics. None of the puppies in this litter are fearful or timid, making them great candidates for an easy transition into almost any home. These puppies are intelligent, confident, and bring a ton of joy with their playful and happy spirits. They would fit well into a variety of home types and are sure to thrive with loving families!

Lillian Pink

Energy Level: Moderate

Personality: Pink is tiny but fierce—she has a huge personality packed into her small frame! Her confidence shines, and she doesn't seem to realize she's one of the smallest. Pink will bring a lot of spirit and joy to any home with her lively and adventurous nature.

Lillian Red

Energy Level: Mid to Moderate

Personality: Red is a delight to be around—she's confident, bubbly, and absolutely loves toys. One of her cutest habits is taking a toy and spinning around it in the most adorable way. Her joyful, fun-loving personality makes her such a standout in this litter. She is incredibly people-oriented and intuitive, making her a natural fit for emotional support or therapy work. With no red flags noted, she's sure to transition seamlessly into her new home and thrive in any loving environment.

Lillian White

Energy Level: Moderate

Personality: White is sweet and loving, though she can be a little pushy with her littermates at times. However, she is easily redirected and responds well to guidance. With a little Prep School training, she'll be a wonderful addition to any home. Her affectionate nature truly shines through.

Lillian Blue

Energy Level: Mid-Level

Personality: Blue is the most laid-back of the group. He enjoys his independence and often goes off to play on his own. His calm demeanor sets him apart, and he'll likely be a more relaxed companion for a quieter household or someone who appreciates a dog that's a bit more independent.

Health Notes:

All puppies in this litter are healthy with no specific health concerns noted at this time.
