

Arizona Girls Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 9/12/2024

Arizona Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Litter Overview:

The Arizona girls are a happy, playful group with a natural confidence and eagerness for interaction. They are highly motivated by human engagement and can be a bit pushy when excited, especially if you're on the ground with them. They all have moderate energy levels, except for Pink Dot, who leans more mid to moderate. These girls are feisty with each other in play, rarely vocal, and display a strong interest in toys and playtime. They take a while to tire out, so a home that's interactive and allows plenty of play and energy burns will suit them best. Training will harness their positive energy and eagerness to connect with people.

Arizona Pink (Breeder's Pick)

- Prep Dates: 11.21.24 - 03.13.24 (16 Weeks)
- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Pink is confident, self-assured, and has an adorable, floppy quality when handled. She's a cool, fun puppy to watch, with a playful, easygoing personality that makes her a delightful companion. No red flags were noted.

Arizona Red

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Red brings a fun, silly energy to the group with her signature hop and eagerness to engage. She's playful and very motivated to capture attention, making her an entertaining, affectionate addition to any home. No red flags were noted.

Arizona White

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: White is the most independent of the litter, content to play alone or with her littermates without seeking constant human interaction. Though she enjoys being with people, it isn't her primary focus, making her a great fit for a home that values a balanced mix of independence and companionship. No red flags were noted.

Arizona Pink Dot

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Pink Dot is slightly milder than her sisters, often exploring on her own but then coming back to settle close by. She has a gentle, sweet side, though she may show a little mouthiness when engaging. Her calm yet engaging nature makes her well-suited for an interactive home. No red flags were noted.

