Layla Blue

- POTENTIAL EMOTIONAL SUPPORT CANDIDATE
- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Layla Blue started off slightly unsure and observant but warmed up quickly with gentle attention. He would whine when uncertain, but his eagerness to interact and play shone through, evident by his wagging tail even during moments of hesitation. Blue is naturally gentle, respectful, and incredibly affectionate, preferring to stay close to people for reassurance. He thrives on human interaction and would likely bond deeply with his family. Handling is easy with him, and he enjoys snuggling and being loved on. His interest lies more in people than toys, and he feels happiest and safest when receiving attention. Blue's sweet and loving nature, combined with his calm and gentle demeanor, makes him an excellent emotional support candidate.

Health Notes:

- Blue has an underbite. It is mild, will not cause discomfort, and will not affect his daily life or routine.
