Carmella Girls Overview:

The Carmella girls are a confident and highly social group, eager to engage with both people and their surroundings. They display wonderful play energy and are self-assured in new environments. While Pink, White, and Pink Dot are more exploratory and occasionally mouthy in their interactions, these behaviors are typical of puppies and can be easily addressed with training. Red and Red Dot are naturally more respectful and gentle, making them particularly well-suited for homes with children. All of the puppies have moderate energy levels, with Red Dot leaning slightly more toward mid-moderate.
