

Heidi Litter Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 10/25/2024

Heidi Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Heidi Boys Overview:

The Heidi boys are confident, self-assured, and naturally independent. Despite their small size, they carry themselves with quiet confidence and eagerness to explore. They are gentle with handling and enjoy human interaction, particularly Green, who is the most people-oriented. Blue is the tiniest but bold and adventurous, while Green thrives on connection and affection. These boys are balanced and easygoing, making them a wonderful fit for a variety of homes.

Health Notes:

- Blue: Does not have teeth yet, but it looks like he will have a mild underbite.
 - Green: Has a mild underbite.
-

Heidi Blue

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Blue is the tiniest of the litter but carries himself with remarkable confidence and independence. He doesn't let his small size hold him back and seems completely unaware of it! He enjoys exploring and playing, showing a naturally curious and adventurous nature. Blue is gentle, respectful, and easy to be around. His confidence and self-assurance make him a wonderful, balanced puppy who would fit well in just about any home environment.

Heidi Green

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate

- Personality: Green is very people-oriented and the most engaging puppy when it comes to human interaction. He loves coming in for pets and enjoys spending time close to you. He is naturally affectionate, confident, and eager to please. His love for connection and engagement makes him a great candidate for a family that values close companionship and interaction. He has a sweet and gentle temperament that's hard not to adore.

