Julie Girls Overview:

The Julie girls are confident puppies with a quiet, calm demeanor. While they entered the new environment with a little apprehension and shyness, they warmed up nicely. Red and White adjusted faster than Pink, but all three puppies demonstrated wonderful adaptability. These girls are naturally gentle, respectful, and have sweet temperaments that will make them a joy to be around. They all have a great balance between playfulness and calmness, making them versatile companions for various home types.

Health Notes:

- None

Julie Pink

- Energy Level: Mid (with potential to move toward mid to moderate as confidence grows)
- Personality: Pink is a gentle and respectful puppy who thrives on human interaction. She tends to stay close by and seeks comfort in proximity to people. Initially, she may whine when unsure, but as her confidence builds, she becomes more vocal when trying to initiate play or explore unfamiliar objects. Once comfortable, Pink's playful and silly side shines, and she eagerly runs around and engages with her environment. Her loving and affectionate nature makes her an ideal choice for someone who values close companionship. No red flags were noted

Julie Red

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Red is a naturally curious and investigative puppy who is content and easygoing. She can entertain herself and finds joy in independent play. Her hilarious antics, like rolling around and crouching on her front paws, make her a delight to watch. Red is unfazed by new sights or sounds, showing a wonderful balance of confidence and independence. She will adapt well to a variety of home types and bring laughter and joy to her new family. No red flags were noted.

Julie White

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: White is a balanced and mild-natured puppy with a wonderful "go with the flow" temperament. She enjoys chewing on toys and is equally content playing independently or sitting in your lap for some quiet affection. Her easygoing and adaptable nature ensures she will fit seamlessly into a home that values her independent yet affectionate personality. White's calm and flexible demeanor makes her a joy to be around. No red flags were noted.
