

Mia Litter Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 11/2/2024

Mia Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Mia Girls Overview:

The Mia litter is a delightful group of naturally sweet and engaging puppies. While they initially entered the space observant, they quickly warmed up and showcased their confident and interactive personalities. These girls are playful, affectionate, and fun to watch. They have a balanced mix of independence and a love for interaction, making them adaptable to various home types. All of the puppies have mid to moderate energy levels. They were rarely vocal and used their mouths minimally, showcasing their naturally gentle and respectful nature.

Mia Pink

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Pink is a balanced puppy who is content to explore and play independently or engage with her littermates. She is naturally sweet, affectionate, and laid-back, making her an easygoing companion. Pink's calm and steady demeanor makes her a joy to be around. No red flags were noted.

Mia Red

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Red is playful, silly, and full of surprises. She loves to engage with her littermates and seeks out toys for play. Red's vibrant and humorous personality keeps you entertained and brings plenty of joy to her interactions. No red flags were noted.

Mia White

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: White is a playful and spunky puppy with a delightful balance of independence and interaction. She enjoys engaging with her littermates and exploring her surroundings but can also display a more laid-back demeanor when the moment calls for it. White's lively yet adaptable personality makes her a wonderful companion. No red flags were noted.

Health Notes:

White has an underbite. It is very mild and will most likely correct itself. She has been cleared from vet, this will not affect her daily life or cause any pain or discomfort!

