Merlot Girls Temperament Overview:

The Merlot overall needed time to adjust to new situations. They showed some stress in new situations, around new people, and in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. These puppies did startle with loud sounds and sudden sights, but they do recover on their own. These puppies have good memory, focus, and problem-solving ability average to their age and stage of development. These puppies also have good motivations for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels.

These puppies overall are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. These puppies skewed towards being naturally gentle and respectful. They were all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They are also rarely vocal. Over all these puppies had no red flags and showed no possessiveness.

Merlot Pink

POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Pink adjusts very well to new situations and seems very well balanced. She should adapt well into any home.
- Health Notes: Pink has a slight underbite, but our vet has confirmed it's purely cosmetic and won't cause any pain or discomfort, nor will it affect her ability to eat, play, or live a normal, happy life. As she grows, it will most likely correct itself or become even more mild over time.

Merlot Red

POTENTIAL THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Red is very confident, outgoing and balanced. She is playful, curious, social, and happy. She should adapt well into any home.
- Health Notes: NA
