The Eden litter overall is very confident and self assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies are curious and investigative with new sites and sounds including those that should typically be considered startling. These puppies have excellent memory, focus and problem-solving abilities above average for their age and stage of development. These puppies also have excellent motivation for interaction and good motivation for food and toys. These puppies overall are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people, although orange and blue can be a little pushy in their effort to get and keep your attention. These puppies have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They do use their mouth to initiate or engage in play, but have excellent bite. Inhibition orange can be vocal in his effort to get your attention. Otherwise, they are rarely vocal. These puppies are comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint and actively seek out these types of interactions.
