Vada Girls Temperament Overview:

The Vada litter overall is confident and self assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They are curious and investigative with new sights and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. These puppies overall have good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for their age and stage of development. Their focus is very good for puppies of their age and energy level. They have excellent motivation for interaction and food. They have good motivation for toys.

These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people, although a couple of the puppies can be a little pushy in their effort to get and keep your attention. They do use their mouth somewhat, but have excellent bite inhibition and it is not intrusive. They are rarely vocal. These puppies have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. Most of them actively seeking out this type of interaction.
